These new gasket sets have been fashioned after those of the auto industry in that each kit contains gaskets for multiple model application. In other words, your customer will be receiving one or more gaskets that will not be applicable to his or her motorcycle model. This has been a common practice in not only the automotive aftermarket but in numerous other industries as well. In reality it does not mean a significant increase in retail cost to your customer; however, it does mean a significantly simpler gasket set inventory for you to maintain.

Remember, we are constantly striving to simplify the Genuine Replacement Parts product line to make it more profitable and competitive in the marketplace!!!
